ENCOUNTER AT SEA.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 9.—Emperor Nicholas has received the following dispatch from Viceroy Alexieff dated August 7th: "Telegrams received today from Port Arthur and from the commander of the squadron stated that the cruisers Bayan, Askold, Pallad Novik, and some gunboats steamed out of the harbor on July 26th for the purpose of bombarding the enemy's positions.

"They were attacked by the Japanese battleship Chinyen, the protected cruiser Chiyoda, Itsukushima, Matsushima, and two second-class cruisers, with thirty torpedo boats.

"An eight-inch shell from the Bayan burst in the stern of the Itsukushima, placing that ship out of action. Thereupon all the Japanese ships steered for the open sea, and at the same time the Chiyoda was damaged by a Russian shell. As the Chiyoda was sinking by the head she was steered toward Talien Bay. A shot from battery 22 also damaged a Japanese gunboat.

RUSSIAN NAVY ASSISTS THE ARMY.

"On July 27th, in view of the Japanese having taken the general offensive against our land positions, the Bayan, the battleship Retvizan, the Pallada, Askold and Novik, the coast defence vessels Gremiachi, Otva-shni, the gunboat Giliek, and twelve torpedo boats were ordered to support our right flank at the demand of Lieutenant General Stoessel.

"Our ships, preceded by mine dredgers, steamed towards Lungtan, from where they bombarded the Japanese positions until 3 p.m. On their return a mine exploded underneath one of the dredges."

TO AID KUROPATKIN.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 10.—It is reported that Gen. Linevitch is marching with troops from the direction of Vladivostok to create a diversion in the rear of Kuroki's army with the object of relieving the pressure on Kuropatkin's forces.

MILITARY OPERATIONS.

Liao Yang, August 10.—General Kuropatkin is ready to defeat the Japanese plan for cutting off Liao Yang. The Japanese forces are divided into three groups: First, at Simoucheng, Hai Cheng and New Chwang; the second threatening Liandiansian and Liao Yang; and the third threatening Sikseyan, Liao Yang and Mukden.

According to Chinese reports the Japanese are massing in the direction of Raimatze, evidently flanking Liao Yang and strong columns are ascending the Liao Valley from New Chwang.

DROVE JAPANESE BACK.

Sin Tsin Ting, 66 miles east of Mukden, Manchuria, August 10.—A column of Russian troops consisting of two companies of Cossacks, two companies of sharpshooters accompanied by infantry and a couple of mountain guns, set out on August 4th on the Saimatsi road towards Tsin Han, 36 miles southward and drove in the Japanese outposts. They stubbornly resisted at three consecutive passes, but were routed by the Russian artillery, leaving ammunition and equipment behind them. One Russian was killed and four wounded. The Russians pursued the Japanese as far as Tsinhan. According to the Chinese, two thousand Japs are holding that place.

JAPANESE USING CHINESE RAILWAY.

Mukden, Aug. 10.—The Japanese are using the Shan Hai Kwan-Yin Kow railway for provisioning the army and mobilizing troops for an attack on Simintum, about 30 miles west of Mukden. The railway is Chinese property. Simintum is the northern terminus of Shan Hai Kwan railway.

Boundary Bandits

Regina, Aug. 5.—Strange as it may seem, a whole district in the South Assiniboia country has been terrorized for years past by a gang of bandits, who carried on their depredations to an amazing extent and in a manner which at once inculcated fear and prevented the apprehension of the desperadoes. It is no uncommon thing to hear of such things happening over in the Montana and Idaho country, but it was generally supposed that western Canada was free from such people. Even so well organized a force as the N.W.M.P. has found it an almost impossible task to arrest or secure evidence which would convict the gang. The chief exploit of this gang was horse stealing, they accompanying their thieving with a rule of fear over the settlers which actually prevented the latter from informing or assisting in the suppression of the bandits. The originals of this gang were men known as the "Nelson and Jones" gang. They were bad enough, but when Mr. Pascal Bonneau, a prosperous French rancher, of Wood Mountain, sent an employee of his, who went under the name of "Dutch Henry," over to Montana to bring back a band of horses he had bought, he unwittingly added to the power of the men who were already causing a great deal of trouble. For "Dutch Henry" instead of returning with the 250 horses which Mr. Bonneau had bought, drove them all over to the headquarters of the Jones-Nelson gang and sought permission from the latter to join their company. It was not long after that many of the stolen horses were offered for sale in Montana, but as Mr. Bonneau had bought up not only the horses, but the brand as well, everybody knew that the horses thus branded were stolen. The headquarters of the gang at this time was on the edge of the bad lands. Whenever anyone reported any of the stolen horses for sale and any questions were asked, a bill of sale from Dutch Henry was produced. The accessories came in contact with the public, but "Dutch Henry" was not locatable. The hills and valleys of his chosen country furnished good covering, especially when he had numerous friends and all his enemies were terror stricken. The police to their sorrow many a time found out the danger of hunting him. An instance may be cited to prove the character of the men. Accompanied by an ex-policeman named "Jim" Marshall, who had found the gang, they raided the shack of a settler named Kinz. King rode past hate to the nearest police station and laid information, after which Inspector Strickland offered him an escort home. King refused, saying he was armed and could take care of himself. He had only gone a short distance, however, until he was held up and disarmed. Conveyed to suitable quarters he was then subjected to a mock trial by the bandits, convicted of course, and made to suffer the greatest of indignities. He was then held as a prisoner, but through the connivance of the ex-policeman, he was enabled to escape and reached the police post in a dreadful state. He then left the country, refusing to give any evidence against the gang. This spring they raided the ranch of a man named Pickering, but no evidence is obtainable owing to the fear of the settlers. On one occasion the gang, believing that a certain man had given evidence against them, stripped him naked, tied him bareback on to a broncho, his hands also being tied, and set the brute loose. The arrest of two of the accessories, which occurred a few days ago, is likely to stop these depredations. The man Schofield is a very bad character, he being a Montana man with a bad reputation. At any rate the police are determined to put an end to what has been going on, for it is generally recognized that until such is done there will be no progress in the district affected.

War Notes

London, Aug. 5.—The Russia correspondent of the Times says that the first effects of the war are beginning to be felt on the Russian credit at home, which is already considerably shaky. Many important orders for military stores are not being paid for in ready money, but by bills payable two years from date. Moreover, although the amount of paper money issued is stated officially to be not more than £12,000,000, it is believed the sum is three or four times larger. The Russian credit both at home and abroad is bad and depends entirely on the presence of large gold receipts and the government is sparing no effort to ship gold into the country. The moment it begins to flow out the national credit will collapse. It is already declared doubtful if the Imperial bank will discount the bills on the Nishin. Novgorod this year, as it has always done. Everything in the business world is now very uncertain, and the bank wishes to run no risks.

Chefoo, Aug. 5.—S. A. Serebrinik, who was a passenger on the British steamer Hipsang, which was sunk by a Russian torpedo boat in Pigeon Bay July 16, and who was among the refugees who arrived here yesterday on the German steamer Sulbery, was interviewed today. According to his version, the fighting before Port Arthur from July 26 to 28 inclusive, was directed against the last of the outer defences, namely Wolf's, Green and Christ Hills, situated north and east of the city. The Japanese captured Wolf's and Green hills but had yet to take Christ's hill, which was the only outpost held by the Russians when Mr. Serebrinik left Port Arthur. A Port Arthur newspaper estimated the Russian loss at 200 killed and 800 wounded, the Japanese loss at 17,000 killed and wounded. It was also estimated that the Japanese fired 125,000 rounds of shrapnel. The ground was covered with broken shells. The Japanese attacking force was estimated at 180,000 men. On the night of July 28 a truce was declared for the purpose of burying the dead, which strewn the hills.

The Russian fleet emerged from the harbor July 26 and engaged Admiral Togo, who withdrew safely beyond his mines. A Japanese gunboat struck a mine and was damaged, but not sufficiently to sink her. She was towed away. The Russian warships then retired, one squadron going to the inner basin, the other behind the Tiger's Tail. None of them were injured.

The main force of the Russian army defending Port Arthur is now inside the numerous permanent forts which constitute the fortress. They have 2,000 guns sweeping the plain over which the Japanese must cross. An assault is expected August 15. There was a general confidence prevailing that the fortress is invulnerable, although the courage of the Japanese is described as reckless to an extreme. The Japanese are now mounting heavy guns on the positions captured

July 28. It is alleged that the Russian battleship Retvikan threw a 12-inch shell which hit a Japanese gun, which was being mounted on Wolf's Hill, killing many.

General Fock who commanded the Russians at Wolf's Hill, is reported in a Port Arthur newspaper to have related an incident illustrating the spirit of the Russian troops. A severely wounded soldier was being assisted to the rear. He was struggling and expostulating. Gen Fock said: "What's the matter, brother?" "They left my gun and sword for the Japanese. How can I fight when I get well?" Lieut.-Gen. Stoessel, who is in chief command at Port Arthur, is a strict disciplinarian. He is feared by the officers and loved by the soldiers. He arises at daybreak every day and makes the rounds of the positions.

Mr. Serebrinik says he saw General Stoessel when leaving Port Arthur and that he had not been wounded as reported, but his dog had lost a leg. Illustrating Gen. Stoessel's discipline, the story is told that on discovering some officers at a champagne dinner, he personally ordered the guests under three days' arrest and confiscated the viands. Mr. Serebrinik, who is a Russian, held contracts to supply artillery, but he was suspected of being a spy and was confined separately. His information regarding conditions at Port Arthur was derived chiefly from a newspaper which was allowed him. The accounts of the Chinese differ from that of Mr. Serebrinik. They say that the Japanese were only two miles from the fortress when they left. Mail, including newspapers, was still arriving at Port Arthur.

The Hipsang was officered by Englishmen, as follows: Captain Bradley, engineers, Collier, Watson and Bishop, and mates, Smith and Cartwright. They are now at Chefoo. They were marched into Port Arthur, some in pyjamas and some in even less. They did not receive any clothing until the junk on which they left Port Arthur was stopped by the Japanese, who gave them every attention. The reason assigned by the Russians for sinking the Hipsang as given to the Hipsang's officers, was that they thought she was a Japanese vessel. They say that the Japanese had been flying the British flag.

Diverting Immigration

Herald:

Theodore M. Knappen, secretary of the Western Canada Immigration association with headquarters at Minneapolis, is in the city. He was in conference with a number of leading citizens during the morning. Mr. Knappen will return to Minneapolis on today's train.

"There is much interest throughout the states in Western Canada, but a very serious effort is being made to divert the stream of settlers from the north," said Mr. Knappen. "Our association is opposed by a number of very strong organizations with unlimited capital. Canada should not forget that today the states are aroused to the importance of keeping all classes of her citizens at home."

"In all the central states from which thousands have in the past moved to Canada there are separate organizations busy circulating information as to why the farmers should not go into foreign territory. This counter movement did not reach practical proportions until last year. There is no disputing the fact that their efforts are having substantial effect. There is a well organized association in Michigan and another in the northwestern states and the Minnesota legislature at its session this winter will likely appropriate a large sum to be devoted to keeping American farmers away from Canada."

"The most powerful opposition to western Canada crusade is forced to meet, however, is that of the Southwestern Railway association. More than a year ago these allied lines organized a bureau of publicity and colonization at St. Louis and put unlimited capital into the scheme. They issued all the free transportation required and gave a corps of bright men full authority to put attractive literature before the public.

BECAUSE PROPERLY CURED

Y Pharaohs have been called a "Health cigar" and this is why: Every leaf of tobacco I work into Pharaoh is absolutely free of "gum."

You must know that a "gummy" tobacco will make a poor smoke and act injuriously on the throat and stomach. The gum, dissolved by the heat of combustion, is drawn into the mouth—becomes mixed with the saliva and finally reaches the stomach.

The membrane that lines your throat and stomach is pretty tough—but it won't stand the harsh, irritating action of this dissolved gum.

You'll have sore throat if you smoke the "gum" cigar—you'll have heartburn, indigestion, and a disagreeable taste in your mouth from an injured stomach.

With every particle of gum properly "sweated," cured and aged out of the leaf I use as filler for my Pharaoh, I can guarantee you a pure, cool, sweet, fragrant smoke—free from disagreeable tastes and injurious actions on the inner man.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETS

A meeting of the Edmonton District Protestant Public School board was held in the secretary's office yesterday afternoon. Chairman Alex Taylor, H. C. Taylor and R. Lee were present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed.

The finance committee reported a demand for $20,300 for the expenses of the district. The report was adopted.

Principal Ramsay, of the Public Schools, submitted a report on the schools. It was decided to have a synopsis of this report published in the local papers.

Miss McL. Brill was given a position on the teaching staff.

A committee was appointed to make arrangements for the renting of the rooms recently being used by the Alberta college in the Masonic Hall.

The following accounts were ordered to be paid:

July pay sheet, $1,401.73.

Ross Bros., $1.70.

Jas. A. Stovel, 45c.

Bulletin, $2.00.

The meeting then adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman.

COUNCIL MEETING

The regular meeting of the Edmonton city council was held in the usual place Tuesday night. Mayor Short and Councillors Cushing, Fraser, May and Picard were present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

Messrs. Potter and Patton, who were present, complained that they were assessed on their horses and drays besides paying a license for carrying on the business. This caused considerable discussion, but it was finally allowed to stand over without any definite action being taken.

Mr. Melnis, a recent arrival from Detroit, asked to have a real estate agent's privilege on the payment of part of the license fee, as he would only be in Edmonton until October 15th. The request was refused.

The secretary of the fire brigade asked that a water closet and bathroom be built in the fire hall. The secretary was instructed to inform the secretary of the fire brigade that when the new municipal offices had been constructed the old building would be remodeled to meet the requirements of the brigade.

The exhibition association asked for the payment of the city grant to the fair. It was agreed to give $1,500, less the amount of water charges and taxes against the property.

The construction of the cement sidewalk in front of the Alberta hotel was referred to the board of works committee to see that it was carried out according to the by-law. Tenders will be called for this work.

Jos. Hillman and others petitioned to have the water hole near their residences on Fraser avenue drained. This was referred to the engineer with instructions to act.

R. L. Haskell and others on Namayo asked for the waterworks and sewerage system to be extended from Fourth to Fifth street, River Lot 10. The petition was referred to the engineer.

The police were instructed to see that all the stores be closed on civic holiday, August 23rd.

The petition of the special constables employed by the town during fair asking that they receive three dollars per day instead of two dollars, was granted. The chief of police was informed that after this such constables should be paid at the rate of two dollars a day.

The report of A. W. Ormsby, electric light lineman, was received.

The engineer reported regarding the cost—$2,500—of laying a four inch water main to the brewery. The report was ordered sent to T. W. Lines, manager of the brewery, to ascertain what revenue would be derived from the installation of the main.

John Sommerville and Sons' tender for ten ton weigh scales for the market square, for $380, was accepted.

A report regarding the economical handling of coal at the power house was referred to the power house engineer.

Henceforth all city accounts will be paid semi-monthly.

The estimates were considered, but no definite action taken.

The meeting adjourned until Thursday evening at eight o'clock.

SPORTS

LEDUC DEFEATED

BY STRATHCONA

A Very Poor Game with punk Playing on both sides. Score 3 to 0

In a poor exhibition of the national game Leduc went down to defeat before the Strathcona team in the latter town last night by a score of 3 to 0. The three goals were scored in the last part of the second half as it began to get dark. The onlookers were comparatively few in numbers and lacked enthusiasm.

The game commenced at shortly after eight o'clock. From the start both teams played the old style of long throws, which made the playing very uninteresting. No successful attempts at combination were made. The first half was doubtless favorable to Strathcona, as they forced the nets repeatedly. Rank shooting was responsible for no scoring. At times Leduc men would have the ball right at their opponents goal without any checking and even then shoot wide. They lost repeated sure things in this way.

Half time found neither team with a score. Play continued as in the first half. After five minutes play Strathcona scored the first goal. After this in a great effort to score, the Leduc boys left their goal unguarded and the Strathcona home unopposed with the result that the Strathconas, breaking away from the play, added two more tallies. The game had to be stopped on account of darkness.

The following is the line-up:—

Strathcona.	Leduc.
Goal.
Benton	Tweddie
Point.
Richards	Hardy
Cover Point.
Grundy	Banford
Defence Field.
Duggan	Hardy
Brown	Agicher
Centre.
Blain	Armstrong
Home Field.
McCormick	Hardy
Campbell	Anderson
Outside Home.
Carmichael	Leisk
Inside Home.
Cashman	Watkins
Mr. Archibald, of Edmonton, gave good satisfaction as referee.

The Edmonton lacrosse team plays Strathcona in Strathcona on Friday evening next. The Strathcona team will have to put up a different article of lacrosse if it expects to be in the running.

In Strathcona yesterday the Millet football club defeated the Strathcona aggregation by a score of 1 to 0.

Baseball tomorrow night, Fort Saskatchewan vs. Edmonton. This is expected to be the best game of the season.

On Friday last the touring Calgary baseball team easily defeated Regina. The Regina team's supporters said the game was sold, and made loud boasts of their prowess, should they ever again meet Calgary. The Calgary team anxious to accommodate, cut out their Portal date, and played a second game in the capital with the result that Regina suffered a thorough defeat, score 12 to 2.

Diverting Immigration

"As an evidence of the scale on which they are proceeding, I am told the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad issued 3,400 annual passes over its whole system of ten thousand miles, to land operators alone last year, and has spent $1,000,000 promoting immigration. This system penetrates the west and south from Chicago and goes right through to San Francisco. The Iron Mountain, Missouri Pacific, Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, the Burlington, Kansas City Southern, Cotton Belt, Texas Pacific, Southern Pacific, Denver and Rio Grande and Wabash companies, all of them making huge appropriations for this work, have placed many thousand of settlers on the plains of the south-west in the past few years. One road to my knowledge spent $50,000 on one pamphlet. This is the character of the work we must combat."

"The payers in those sections of the states which have lost largely to Canada recently are awakening to the seriousness of this northern migration. Many of them are refusing to publish information of a favorable character about Canada. They do not fail, on the other hand, to make the most capital out of any unfavorable information they get from Canada. Occasionally some chap returns from Western Canada with a hard luck story. This they make the most of. I saw some complaint where a fellow who said he had farmed in the West declared the wheat out here stopped growing, and therefore could not mature.

"Just now the state papers are making much of the Grand Trunk Pacific alien labor agitation. They are saying: 'Yes, the Canadians want the Yankees up there, but they want only the hewers of wood and drawers of water. Get up there and begin to display any brains and they want to deport you.'

"Of course there is another side to this picture. That is the general desire for accurate information of thousands of would be settlers. This demand is so keen in many places that the daily papers are forced to send correspondents through western Canada and pay large sums to secure facts for their readers. I know one correspondent who is now on his way for one big daily, tramping overland. He is thus securing the best data from first hands.

"I am confident we can keep up the interest in Canada and increase the stream of immigrants, but it requires a hard pull and a strong pull and some considerable capital.

You can try it. FREE.

LOCAL

The annual class firing will commence at the rifle ranges this afternoon.

I. S. Doze, of Clover Bar, was in Edmonton yesterday. Crops in that vicinity are in splendid condition.

The Columbia Comedy Company appeared in Thistle rink last night under the management of Mr. Walter Clark. There was a good attendance. The Apollo orchestra and the Union band assisted in the concert, which passed off most successfully.

A bus load of people returning from Strathcona last night were precipitated over the bank about half way between the two towns, falling a distance of about thirty feet. The bus was badly smashed but the occupants fortunately escaped with but a few bruises.

Lacombe Globe: No little excitement and talk is now in progress over the arrival in town of a large gang of Grand Trunk Pacific surveyors. We learn from a good reliable source that they will survey west from here to the Yellowhead pass, thence to the Pacific coast. The outfit numbers 18 men and they will commence work at once. They have purchased a large list of supplies from R. J. Scott, the flour and feed merchant.

STILL NO TRACE

No trace has yet been found of the missing Mrs. Kuhnert. A close search is being kept up.

FAIR CALLED OFF

The Strathcona Agricultural Exhibition Association have called off their fair for today.

The steady downpour of rain today made this imperative. It is to be regretted that the association has had the misfortune to encounter such disagreeable—from the exhibition standpoint—weather. Very few people were on the grounds yesterday and the entries were light. Today was depended on to be the big day of the fair.

SUNNYSIDE

The Sunnyside football team turned out on Saturday in great force, expecting to meet the Sturgeon Valley team and repeat their victory of last month. Several of the ladies of the district had made great preparations in the grub line and were in readiness on the field to attend to the wants of the valiant Valley boys in the event of their carrying the match.

Unfortunately the Sturgeon boys failed to put in an appearance. This was disappointing, as Sunnyside had heard various threats and rumors as to their fate in the event of another meeting between the two teams.

Messrs. Hall and McIntyre made up scratch teams after supper and engaged in a very exciting game, the result being 6 to 4 for A. McIntyre's team; both sides playing in true Sunnyside style. Mr. Rye put in an appearance in the course of the evening and made a very efficient goal-keeper for A. Hall's team.

SPRUCE GROVE

Local Correspondence.

A very pretty wedding took place at Spruce Grove on Wednesday, July 26th, at the home of the groom. The contracting parties were Mr. Peter Macabee and Miss Nellie Gertrude Jenkins, both of Spruce Grove. The bride looked charming in a dress of pale blue silk, trimmed with white lace and ribbon. She was attended by Miss Theresa McKay, while Mr. Eddie Jenkins, brother of the bride, supported the groom. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Mr. McDonald of Edmonton. After the marriage ceremony the guests repaired to the dining room where the dinner table was laden with all the good things which the generous host had provided, to which all did ample justice.

The remainder of the evening was spent in music and dancing. The company dispersed in the wee sma' hours, wishing the newly married couple a long, happy and prosperous journey through life. The many presents of which the bride was the recipient, go to show the esteem in which she is held by her many friends.

Breaks Through Bridge

Denver, Aug. 8.—The Missouri Pacific flyer of the Denver and Rio Grande line went through a bridge over Dry Creek, 8 miles from Pueblo, last night. A hundred and twenty-five passengers were on board and it is believed between 80 and 100 lost their lives.

The engine got over but slipped back. The chair car was carried half a mile down. A sleeper and a dinner car did not drop.

Two trains of medical men and stretchers have left for the scene of the accident.
